Before they were famous (and after!)

Jennifer Hudson – a life of ups and downs

Jennifer Hudson's life is like a film. Her father was a bus driver. He died when she was a teenager. At 16, Jennifer had to work as a cook at a fast food restaurant. She needed money to pay for her studies. In the end, she didn't study at university. She became a singer on a cruise ship.

Next, she went on the TV programme American Idol. She was a finalist, but didn't win. Then she made a film, Dreamgirls and won an Oscar at the ceremony, she talked about her first job. To thank her, the fast food restaurant said she could eat for free at the restaurant for the rest of her life.

Sadly, in 2008, three members of Jennifer's family died. It was the same year that she went into the studio and made her first record. The next year, her record was number 1 and she sang for the US president.

Brad Pitt – his many jobs

Success didn't come easily for Brad Pitt. He studied to be a journalist at the University of Missouri, but he didn't finish the course. He left just two weeks before the end. He already knew he wanted to be an actor.

He went to live in Los Angeles in 1985. He became a student again, this time studying acting. He didn't have much money so he started to take other jobs to pay for his classes. At one time, he was in a limousine driver. He also had a job taking fridges from the factory people's homes.

Then he had an unusual job, dressing up as chicken to get people to eat in a Mexican restaurant! Now, Brad is not only an actor but also a businessman with his own Hollywood production company.
